Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pujare et al. (hereinafter "Pujare", US Pub No 2002/0083183 A1).

As per claims 1-3, Pujare discloses a rich client application delivery (RCAD) system, method, and means comprising:

- A sever computer connected to a computer network, storing a target application image and executing a RCAD server application, wherein the target application image comprises a collection of files necessary to execute a target application (paragraphs [0074], [0106], [0109], [0138], [0760]);
- A client computer connected to the computer network and having a processor capable of executing a client application, wherein the client application is adapted to communicate with the RCAD server application through the computer network to retrieve portions of files in response to requests by the processor to read from or write to the portion of the file (paragraphs [0074]-[0075], [0106], [0125]-[0130], [0760]), ;

Art Unit: 2157

- The client application is adapted to maintain a copy of the portion of the file in a memory associated with the client computer (paragraph [0760]) ;
- The client application is adapted to retrieve the portion of the file stored in the memory in response to subsequent requests by the processor to read from or write to the portion of the file (paragraphs [0760]-[0765]).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
